AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

USAFacts(2018)

First place in the Design Management Institute's Design Value awards. Finalist in FastCompany Innovation by Design awards. IXDA Shortlist in the Engaging category.

Divvy Data Challenge (2014)

Winning Team (Most Creative). Using Divvy's data we created a satirical "dating site" that pinpointed the best time to meet someone at a Divvy Station. Practical uses for the site include locating stations with a gender imbalance or pinpointing those close to high crime areas.

Chicago Design Museum (2012)

As a volunteer on the Chicago Design Museum marketing team, I was responsible for updating the site's content and functionality as well as overall maintenance.

2 Night Stand (2011)

As part of 2 Night Stand, my group designed a series of posters regarding safety and preparedness for the Zombie Research Society.
